Yale Schools Will Open

Next Tuesday, Sept. 7th

Building Has Been Put in Good Shape and Several Improvements Made

The schools of Yale will open Tuesday morning, Sept. 7th. The Board of Education have had the building thoroughly cleaned and several improvements made. Twenty-three seats have been added to the high school room, and another high school recitation room has been provided.

The citizens of Yale are justly proud of their school, and desire to continue the same high standard as formerly. The schools are on the University list. This means that credits from the Yale High School admit the student to the University of Michigan as well as to all the other colleges of the state without examination.

The citizens of Yale welcome the non-resident students and will take an interest in their welfare. Yale has seven churches and they welcome the students to the church of their choice.

A strong commercial course is offered to those who wish to avail themselves of the opportunities of such a course. It is planned to make the course such that those who complete it satisfactorily will be prepared to take desirable positions in this line. The Board of Education will grant a certificate or diploma to those completing the course. Miss Gladys Arnold, who has been teaching in the commercial department of the Lansing High School, will have charge of the course in Yale this year.

The superintendent will be in the office Friday and Saturday of this week, and it is desirable that as many of the high school who find it possible to do so and pupils who wish to attend here last year, come and classify on these days.

The Board has arranged for the handling of the school text books in the same manner as last year. They may be purchased in the school library, and those who wish to procure them on Friday or Saturday may do so. This would be well, in view of the fact that the supply of some books is limited and hard to get from the publishers. Publishers prices have increased considerably in some lines.

I shall be especially glad to talk with those pupils who do not feel sure about the best course to pursue in the high school, and especially those who are coming to the high school for the first time.

A. T. GREENMAN, Supt.

AUGUST WETTEST FOR 38 YEARS

Record 7.36 in 1882; This Month Rainfall Was 5.5

The rainfall of Sunday afternoon and evening, which measured .67 of an inch, together with several heavy rain storms throughout the past four weeks, have made August, 1920, the wettest month since the year 1882.

The record on the U. S. weather bureau reports is 7.3 inches for the month of August, 1882, while this year's record shows measurements of five and one-half inches.

Temperature was but seven degrees below normal for the first four weeks, the lowest point being reached August 3, at 47 degrees, and the highest August 6, at 88. Last August the temperature for the month was 6 degrees below the normal.

WINDERMERE BURNS

One of the biggest fires Port Huron has seen for many a year was that of the Windermere hotel at Gratiot Beach on Sunday last. The fire alarm was turned in at about noon, the cause of the fire supposedly defective wiring. The high wind, low water pressure and the frame building combined was too much for the firemen and the big hotel is a complete ruin. The loss runs to $75,000 or more with $40,000 insurance. The principal stock holder is Alex. Moore and others J. B. Sperry, John Asman and Mrs. Lucy Heiss.

A number of Yale people were along the beaches and witnessed the spectacular sight.

The End of a Perfect Day

AUTO BADLY SMASHED

Hugh Morris, of Detroit, former well known citizen of Sandusky, had a miraculous escape Tuesday morning at the North street railway crossing.

Mr. Morris had been visiting among his old Sanilac county friends and was on his return trip home when the accident occurred.

He was headed east and the cars and buildings hid the freight train which was working in the yards, and before he was aware of the presence of the train he was too close to stop his car and the engine hit the front end of the auto, turning it completely around and upsetting it in the ditch.

Mr. Morris was badly shaken up and received several bruises, beyond which he was uninjured. The machine was quite badly wrecked and was taken to Eilber & Barth's garage for repairs.

This is certainly a dangerous crossing and the railroad company should either install an electric bell or put up a gate so travelers could be warned at the approach of a train.

Farmers Near Lambs Lose Foreign Labor at Critical Time

Lambs, Aug. 26—Nearly all the families of foreigners who came here to work in the sugar beet fields have returned to the cities. They were disappointed in the wage received, claiming they can earn more at other employment.

Unless other help can be obtained this will result in quite a loss to those having sugar beet acreage, as but few fields have had the second weeding and thinning, the work being delayed by the recent wet weather.

THE HOME PAPER

By "X"

When the evenin' shade is fallin' at the endin' of the day, An' a feller rests from labor, smokin' his pipe o' clay, There's nothin' does him so much good, be fortune up or down, As the little country paper from his old home town.

It ain't a thing o' beauty, an' its print ain't always clean, But it straightens out his temper when a feller's feelin' mean; It takes the wrinkles off his face, an' brushes off the frown; That little country paper from his ol' home town.

It tells of all the parties an' balls of Punkin Row, 'Bout who spent Sunday with his girl and how the crops will grow How it keeps a feller posted 'bout who is up an' who is down— That little country paper from his ol' home town.

Now, I like to read the dailies, an' the story papers too, An' at times the yellow novels an' some other trash—don't you? But when I want some readin' that will brush away a frown, I want that little paper from my ol' home town.

The farmers have apparently done fairly well on all the crops that have been planted. Exceptionally good yields for hay, peas, and wheat, but it remains for John Blatt to have the best flax crop reported to date. He had two and one-half acres from which he harvested eight tons 1435 pounds. For this he will receive $35.00 a ton or $305.11 for the yield; not too bad for the year.—Peck Times.

THE BIG CAMP MEETING

The annual campmeeting which has been held in the City Park the past week has been a very successful one in many respects.

In point of attendance at the various services, it has been unusual. It is considered the largest this people has held. There were eighty-four tents on the ground and these were all filled with tenters. Many came by auto daily which made the congregations large.

The attention was excellent. The Yale people treat the people who attend this camp very respectfully and these people appreciate this very much.

The spiritual side of the meeting was of a high standard. Many were helped in their religious life by the daily influence of the meetings. Quite a number renewed their covenant with their Heavenly Father, while others bowed as penitents at the altar of prayer for the first time.

Rev. J. A. Huffman, the evangelist for the camp, was at his best. We shall not soon forget the excellent sermons and Bible readings which he gave.

Sunday was the big day of the camp. This day the large tent was filled to overflowing. In the afternoon Sunday school was held and over 900 attended.

This same afternoon the people raised $3,760.00 by subscription to pay the expense of the new equipment for the camp in a very short time. There was raised a total of $4,352.00 in all for various purposes.

Yale is to be the annual meeting place for this camp. This is the result of the hospitality shown the Mennonites by the people of Yale.

INTERESTING ITEMS FROM THE FILES OF THE EXPOSITOR IN 1900

Mrs. Wm. Scott was taking the census in school district No. 1, which includes Yale village.

N. B. Sponenburg resigned his position in the Yale Woolen Mills and went to Alpena. Charley Jacobs, of Peck, took the vacated place.

Two new hose houses were being built, one in the rear of Putney & Chamberlain's store, the other just north of the Yale Flouring mill.

At the August teachers' examinations we find the names of Carrie Evans and Luella Cady receiving third grade certificates and J. Frank Baxter a renewal.

The Expositor issue of August 31st gives two columns to the Yale Public School, which was to open on September 3. It was noted that not for several years had there been a change in the corps of teachers, which spoke well for Yale, its people and the ability of the instructors. Prof. J. Q. Roode as principal, and Jessie Merigold as principal, were to enter upon their fourth year of service. There were 65 pupils in the high room the previous year. The grammar room with 56 scholars was in charge of Mary Brown, who had occupied this position for 15 years.

Laura Baxter had the work in the 1st intermediate, entering upon her fifth year. Sixty-six pupils were with her the year before. The 2nd intermediate was taken care of by Lizzie Evans, who would begin her fourth year on the next Monday. She had enrolled the year before 52 boys and girls. The 1st primary belonged to Phebe Roy, who had held this post for eight years, with Hattie Hayes, her companion, for seven years, in the 2nd primary.

The following delegates were elected to the Republican county convention to be held at Port Huron on Tuesday, Sept. 7th:—A. Windsor, Dr. J. B. Stevens, Mrs. L. Roy Fuller, E. F. Peck, Jas. A. Menzies, Mrs. Chas. Rounds, G. W. Elston, Thos. Wharton and D. E. Middleton.

The delegates to the democratic county convention are Chas. Barr, Ed. Andree, W. F. Barr, James Stirling, E. W. Farley, Mrs. Welter Andree, J. C. Henry, Jr., Thos. McGretnan and Pat Kisman.

Up in Sanilac county things were different. Every heat was a race, and the old political map has been changed as much as the boundary lines in Germany. The winner for the office of county sheriff was Chas. McGuiness, of Crowell, who has been after the nomination for "high onto forty years."

For prosecuting attorney Robt. J. West, of Deckerville, defeated Fred A. Farr. Garfield Benedict will make their run for county clerk and Smith, of Lexington, defeats Pearson for Judge of Probate. Bert Walker, of Marlette, will have his name on the ballot for drain commissioner, having received more votes than Harold Phelps, the present incumbent, and if the republican ticket wins out in Sanilac, the only familiar face around the court house for the next two years will be Walter J. Allen, who landed the nomination for register of deeds. Joel Merriman, representative, who hails from Deckerville, was defeated by Chas. Burnham, Worth.

There was a contest on for every office, and many surprises and also disappointments are the result of the primary.

For governor, Milo D. Campbell leads in the county.

August Meeting of Farmers' Club

The August meeting of the Jolly Farmers' Club was called to order by John L. Patterson at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Rose Thungday, August, 26th. Much interest was shown by the hearty hand clapping during the program which consisted of recitations by Isla Edgerton and Earl Edgerton, duets by Jean Hodgins and Frances Keys, Erma Rapley and Luella Carless, and a reading by Lila Reddick. James Whitcomb Riley's "Our Hired Girl," given by little Flossie Wilks was liked so well that an encore was necessary.

Miss Waldron gave a talk on canning meat, and Mr. Van Hickson on "Tile Draining." He pointed out the necessity of and profits by tile draining.

All took part in community singing of "Red, White and Blue," and "Battle Hymn of the Republic."

Although the farmers were very busy, about sixty were present and helped a bounteous pot-luck supper to disappear.

A black silk parasol with gold handle is reported missing by Mrs. Clyde Richards. Whether it was lent or lost she is not sure. Will the finder please leave at the Expositor office or at the hardware store of Mr. Richards.

We have in a full line of fall and winter millinery ready for inspection. Eva J. Black & Co.

The ladies of Church of Christ will hold a sale of home baking on Saturday this week, Sept. 4th, at the Davis Furniture store.

MOVES TO YALE

Mr. and Mrs. Edw. Hallman were pleasantly surprised at their home on Monday evening when about fifty of their friends tendered them a farewell party. The evening was spent in games and music, after which ice cream and cake was served. Bert Mortimore in behalf of those present presented them with a beautiful mahogany clock. Mr. and Mrs. Hallman have made many friends and will be greatly missed, both in the church and community. The best wishes of their many friends go with them to their new home at Yale.—Roseburg correspondence to Peck Times.
